

Cocoon Oil Makes A Splendid Shampoo

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Multisulfed cocoon oil shampoo (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Multisulfed cocoon oil shampoo at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.—Adv.

The Judge Executes a Coup; Henry Robs His Own Coop To Pay Essex Market Fine

He Was a Beginner in the Business and Didn't Know Chicken Caste Distinctions Had to Be Observed and That the Guinea Hen Must Not Be Classed Lower in Social Scale Than the Barnyard Fowl, But He Found It Out $5 Worth.

HENRY LAKEITZ had only been in the business seven weeks, so how was he to know that guinea hens stand as high in the social scale as chickens? Henry came before Judge Huth to answer to the grave charge of cruelty to animals.

His cart had been heavily loaded with choice fowls of the chicken and guinea hen variety. The chickens standing higher in the opinion of said Henry, made it imperative that the guinea hens take a lower berth. All was well until a big noisier named Charley, late from the Chicago race riots, decided that the lighter feathered members of his flock had more than their share of the nose to the spacious compartment. The riot which started ended by more discomfort for the guinea hens.

When asked if he had examined the fowls, the officer from the humane society replied, yes.

"Were they active and lively?"

"No, they were all fagged out. They looked as though they had come from a prize fight."

"That is a nice way to treat guinea hens," said Assistant District Attorney Drenzo, "this is a serious case." Henry looked worried and his uneasiness increased when Judge Huth remarked that "Guinea hens ought to dramatic Mike. Do you blame her? Mike arrived looking like a smiling picture emperor, who had lost his kingdom but was ready to fight for another one. He bit his lip and mumbled something about vengeance and blasphemy. It was easily seen that he was playing his self-elected "roll" but it was doubtful if even Mike himself would have styled the act a comedy.

The story developed that Mike had a husband and Mike insisted that he leave him and do a "double on the Big Time of life" with him. But Mike's "bookings" had not looked good to Minnie, hence complications had set in. Judge Huth smiled as he asked Mike, "Do you love her?" "Yes," replied Mike, the Romeo, casting a furtive glance at Minnie. "And do you love him?" continued the Magistrate. "No!" exclaimed Minnie, and she evidently meant it.

Mike, momentarily stunned by Minnie's frankness, registered deep tragedy but, coming to life under Judge Huth's close scrutiny, he informed the court that he had merely been trying to reform the woman. The Judge assured him that he had undertaken a very noble undertaking, but he said, "come back to-morrow." And he said it in a tone that indicated work of reformation would not go on.

WILL FORM CLEARING HOUSE TO STOP MOTOR CAR THEFTS

Insurance Men and Police Heads of Leading Cities Unite for New System.

The casualty and insurance companies, according to Frank Oliver, Chief Clerk of the Magistrate's Court, are contemplating a system of registry of automobiles which will act as a check on organized automobile thievery. If their plans are carried out, according to Mr. Oliver, it will be as difficult to transfer ownership in an automobile without a clear title as it would be to transfer real estate.

The thefts of automobiles from the curbs have reached the degree that the Lieutenants on duty at police stations now tell complaining victims that "it's a matter of time" for leaving a machine unattended.

Mr. Oliver said to-day that a conference of representatives of twenty or more insurance companies and the heads of the leading cities and the automobile license bureaus had been called to form a clearing house to make effective a campaign to stop the theft of automobiles.

CLEMENCEAU LIKELY TO VISIT UNITED STATES

French Premier Urged to Attend the First Assembly of the League of Nations.

PARIS, Aug. 8.—The presence of Premier Clemenceau at the first general assembly of the League of Nations at Washington is strongly urged in American quarters, according to Marcel Hottin of the Echo de Paris, who says his informant is a French statesman.

M. Hottin says that, while, of course, the Premier "cannot bind himself to go to America at the time when his presence in France is particularly necessary, it may be possible to arrange things, and M. Clemenceau will be unlikely to remain inessential to the pressing invitations he is getting from America."

As to the date of the assembly, it is said, an exchange of views between the Allied Governments is now going on.

FIRE DANGER IN CONGESTION

No Special Precautions Taken in Strike, Says Kenyon.

Fire Chief Kenyon said to-day no special precautions were taken in connection with the strike, although he admitted that the congestion of traffic would make it difficult for fire apparatus to make rapid progress in an emergency.

"But what can we do?" he said. "It is always difficult and dangerous to get through the traffic. What we need and what I have long advocated in Manhattan, is two more avenues, one through, one on the east side, one on the west. For the present we must simply do our best and hope to make progress without accidents."

K. OF C. THANKS VATICAN.

They Cable Appreciation of Neutrality of the Holy See.

BUFFALO, Aug. 8.—One of the final actions of the Knights of Columbus convention was endorsement of a movement supporting the President in a fight against profaneism. The delegates left for their homes to-day.

A cablegram was sent to Rome, expressing appreciation of the Knights of the neutrality of the Holy See during the war.

It was decided to erect at Metz, France, a statue of Lafayette made from the metal cannon captured from the Germans. Permission to do so has been granted by the French Government.

WINGDALE FUGITIVE CAUGHT

Overtaken by Guards After Only Four Hours of Liberty.

OSBURNING, N. Y., Aug. 8.—Harry Collins, twenty-eight years old, who escaped from Wingdale Prison Farm yesterday after twenty-four prisoners had refused to work on account of illness, was brought back to prison early to-day.

Collins enjoyed but four hours of liberty. Four miles from Wingdale he was overtaken by guards. To-day, with two other "strike" leaders, he was transferred from the farm to Sing Sing Prison. Collins first came to Sing Sing April, sent from Manhattan for stealing a horse and a truck.

Germany's Coal Situation Critical.

BERLIN, Thursday, Aug. 7 (Associated Press).—A commission of employers and workers was appointed at Wednesday's coal conference of experts from all parts of Germany to devise means of increasing the production of coal, so that Germany will not freeze or starve during the coming winter. Germany has succeeded in inducing France to admit that her demand for forty million tons of coal annually was a physical impossibility, but it appears that Germany cannot even hope to have enough coal to meet the country's most urgent needs.

Gen. Crowder Sailed From Cuba for Home.

HAVANA, Aug. 8.—Major Gen. E. H. Crowder, Judge Advocate General of the United States Army, who has spent many weeks here in the work of organizing the Cuban electoral laws, sailed for New York last night aboard the Cuban cruiser Cuba.

GIRL OF 14 IS MISSING; KIDNAPPED BY ADMIRER, HER BROTHER BELIEVES

ANNA DEIS.

Anna Deis Gone Since Last Tuesday and Family Fears Married Man Carried Her Off.

Anna Deis, fourteen, of No. 473 Liberty Avenue, Jersey City Heights, has been missing since last Tuesday. Her brother, Robert Deis, said to-day Anna had worked in the National Electric Company's factory on West 14th Street, Manhattan, until the day of her disappearance and that she had been annoyed by a married man, who also has been missing since Tuesday. His abandoned wife, with a child four months old, is said to have sworn out a warrant for his arrest, but he cannot be found. Robert believes Anna has been kidnapped by this married man and three of his associates.

At the time of her disappearance Anna was dressed in mourning.

FOR INSANE SOLDIERS.

Attorney General Acts to Protect 350 in N. Y. Hospitals.

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 8.—There are 350 insane soldiers in New York State hospitals, virtually all of whom suffered mental breakdown in France. It was disclosed to-day, Attorney General Charles D. Newton is preparing applications to the Supreme Court for the appointment of committees to look after the property and money of the soldiers insane.

TRUSTIES' STRIKE IS ON AT SING SING; "TIRED," THEY SAY

Prisoners' "Walk Out" Disclosed by Capture of Escaped Farm Employee.

The return to Sing Sing Prison early to-day of six prisoners, one of whom had escaped, revealed that twenty-four up-to-date trustees have been on a real, honest-to-goodness strike since Wednesday at Wingdale Farm, where vegetables for Sing Sing are raised.

Eighty-eight trustees are employed on the prison farm. The twenty-four, led by the six returned to Sing Sing to-day, declared they did not care for that sort of work and refused to do it. Some pretended to be sick and others just merely "tired." The strikers promised to return to work to-day.

Harry Collins, twenty-eight, a New York prisoner, sentenced for trying to steal a horse and truck in Manhattan, had been on the farm only five days when he decided, as he expressed it, that he "needed a change." He disappeared at 3 P. M. yesterday, the first honor man to escape since Warden Brophy took charge of Sing Sing, four months ago.

A general alarm was sent out for him and State troopers aided in the search. It was believed he would head for New York. Instead, he made for Connecticut, and four hours after he got away he was captured across the Connecticut line by Keepers Fitzmorris and Casper. For his four hours' liberty he must serve one year and seven months extra imprisonment.

Three hundred trustees are at work at Wingdale and on the new prison at Ossining, the largest number ever employed outside the prison at one time.

HAMBY NOW ASKS APPEAL.

Changes Mind and Will Let Law Take Its Course.

OSBURNING, N. Y., Aug. 8.—Gordon Fawcett Hamby, murderer and bank robber, attendant at the death house at Sing Sing said to-day, has lost some of his air of bravado and decided to let his attorney go on with the appeal without further protest.

"After thinking it over," said Hamby, "I decided to let matters take their course. I'll let my attorney appeal."
